

Feedback of practice teaching schools

- Heavy load of practical work should be reduced.
- Class management skills should be improved.
- Counseling and motivational classes should be given to students.
- Strict monitoring needed in classroom transaction.
- Classes related character building of students to be encouraged

The feedback from various stakeholders helped in better curricular delivery by incorporating the suggestions and bringing for the needed changes and revision in curriculum for the betterment of curriculum delivery